

TRAVEL AND TICKET AGENTS

BusinessSafe is based on the idea that certain businesses and industries may be exploited by terrorists who portray themselves as honest customers seeking to purchase, lease or somehow appropriate certain materials, licenses and/or services to covertly further a terrorist plot.

The following are general indicators of potential terrorist planning or activities. Alone, each indicator can result from legitimate recreational or commercial activities or criminal activity not related to terrorism; however, multiple indicators combined with other information may possibly suggest a terrorist threat.

- Physical surveillance, which may include note taking or the use of binoculars, cameras or maps near key facilities.
- Attempts to gain sensitive information regarding key facilities or personnel through personal contact or by telephone, mail or e-mail.
- Attempts to penetrate or test physical security and response procedures at key facilities.
- Attempts to improperly acquire explosives, weapons, ammunition, dangerous chemicals, flight manuals or other materials which could be used in a terrorist attack.
- Suspicious or improper attempts to acquire official vehicles, uniforms, badges, access cards or identification for key facilities.
- Presence of individuals who do not appear to belong in the workplace, business establishment or near a key facility.
- Behavior which appears to denote planning for terrorist activity, such as mapping out routes, playing out scenarios, monitoring key facilities and timing traffic flow or signals.
- Stockpiling suspicious materials or abandoning potential containers for explosives (e.g., vehicles or suitcases).

The following examples of activity relating to Travel and Ticket Agents, though not fully inclusive, may be of possible concern to law enforcement:

- The purchase of a one-way ticket for immediate use.
- Payment of cash for ticket purchase.
- Documents of questionable authenticity offered for proof of identification by customers (i.e., misspellings on "official" papers; altered photos).
- A sudden spike in the number of persons purchasing tickets to a particular location (i.e., to a country overseas) during a specific time period.

Notably, a seized Al Qaeda terrorist training manual has a section devoted to answering questions as a part of a "Security Plan." The example used involves answering questions while traveling through an airport. The manual stresses that “It is essential that he [the “brother”] be taught the answers to the following anticipated questions:

- What are the reasons for your travel?
- How did you get the money for travel?
- How long is the travel period?
- Who will meet you in the arrival country?
- What will you be doing in the arrival country?

Your impressions and assessment based upon your professional business experience are extremely valuable and should help guide you in determining if a customer request, a fact pattern, or set of circumstances is unusual.

Please remember that the conduct of an individual will not necessarily be criminal in nature. Suspicious incidents should be reported immediately to your local law enforcement agency, Crime Stoppers, or your regional FDLE office. You may also email a tip regarding a suspicious incident utilizing the link on the BusinessSafe homepage.

For all emergencies, call “911.”